

REEDY CHAPEL A M E CHURCH

Galveston, Texas

1872 E. & G. G. Hook & Hastings Opus 647

restored

ROY REDMAN

Opus 20

1979

GREAT:	16'	Bourdon	SWELL:	8'	Open Diapason
	8'	Open Diapason		8'	Viola
	8'	Dulciana		8'	Stopped Diapason
	8'	Melodia		4'	Harmonic Flute
	4'	Octave		4'	Violina
	2 ^{2/3} '	Twelfth		8'	Oboe
	2'	Fifteenth			Tremolo
	8'	Trumpet
PEDAL:	16'	Bourdon
	8'	Flute

Couplers: Swell-Great, Swell-Pedal, Great-Pedal

Case of ash with moldings and carvings of walnut

Stenciled pipes duplicated accurately

Original mechanical action and wind system preserved, including the hand pumping feeders

The organ was originally built for the Trinity Episcopal Church of Galveston, Texas.

It survived several major hurricanes and was later moved to Reedy Chapel. The Gothic style case which is 18 feet tall, is made of ash with carved walnut trim.